

Welcome to Madrid

Travelodge Torrelaguna is, above all, a functional hotel. This three-star hotel proposes what they've called "Travelodgic": is a concept that consists in eliminating the small, unnecessary luxuries so as to have guests pay less and only for what is truly necessary. It could be considered a "low cost" hotel. Located in the Arturo Soria business area, the ideal guests in this hotel are business travellers who need a place to stay and are looking for a practical solution.
