

Welcome to Madrid

Located in the Latina neighborhood, it is one of the restaurants that has become legendary, especially in spring and summer, where you can enjoy some tapas, wine, beer and other drinks. It is housed in a 19th century three-story mansion. The ground floor holds the restaurant serving Uruguayan grilled meat (they also have a snack menu); the first floor a café and a cocktail bar with comfortable armchairs where you can enjoy a drink before or after dinner; and the rooftop has a lovely terrace with amazing views of the city center.
