

La Posada de las Ánimas

This is the appealing name of an elegant and popular club, located in the Salamanca neighbourhood. Split between three floors, its interior features red velvet upholstery and curtains as well as large chandeliers, which create a warm and select atmosphere.

On the second floor there are different glass compartments where customers who have bought a bottle can keep it locked up until the next time. The top floor is the VIP area, a trendy space decorated by Tomás Alía: refined aesthetics in an open space where white is predominant.
