

Welcome to Madrid

This long-standing café is located on a corner in the Embajadores neighbourhood, in the Lavapiés quarter. A traditional venue typical of a city like Madrid. Mirrors on the walls, marble tables, classical armchairs... An old establishment with an unbeatable charm.

It is a large establishment that gathers a motley crowd: from students with their heads buried in manuals and avid readers devouring the latest novel by their favourite writer to couples, groups of friends... listening to the background music as they sip a coffee. As well as coffees, teas, herbal teas and delicious hot chocolate, they offer a milkshake menu, pastries and sponge cakes... Trying the chocolate cake is a must. At night, it is an ideal place for a pleasant, relaxed chat after supper, accompanied by a drink or a delicious cocktail, like a mojito. It is the perfect option for a quiet evening out.
