

Welcome to Madrid

The establishment that occupies the legendary Parnasillo (meeting place of Madrid's literary and artistic world during the Madrid Movement in the 1980s - 1990s) has been home to this cocktail-vermouth bar since 2017, which maintains the age-old Bohemian and modernist atmosphere.

The tavern maintains its red velvet sofas, the iron and marble tables, the walls lined with wooden skirting boards and the original lamps dating back to the beginning of the century, and a certain underground atmosphere in its rooms, although it has more freshness and originality.

From midday to the early hours of the morning, you can enjoy signature wines, beers, vermouth on tap, accompanied with tapas and portions to share (gourmet preserves, cheese boards and a selection of cold meats, toasted bread), as well as a wide variety of cocktails. All of this will be livened up with good music, ranging from pop to punk or heavy, as well as singer-songwriters and disco music.
