

Café del Monaguillo

In the heart of the most traditional part of Madrid, this café is in a position where there are a lot of passers-by. In summer it has a terrace, where you can enjoy a cool drink, while admiring some of the oldest streets, like Calle Rollo and Calle Villa.

In winter, coffee is the best option (Jamaican, Cuban, Russian, etc.) or a mojito, caipiriña or piña colada, for those looking for something a little stronger.
