

Coctelería Del Diego

This elegant venue has been decorated in NYC style and is an ideal option for cocktails in the capital. Del Diego offers a vast selection of beverages, in fact, they have one of the longest cocktail menus in Madrid, including gin & tonic, mojito, piña colada, daiquiri and so on. Although the most famous is the 'Soltero Tranquilo' (Laid-back Bachelor), a creation inspired by a solitary customer who liked to frequent the establishment. Don Diego, as his friends call him, although his real name is Fernando, is the owner of this venue in the Gran Vía area, one of the most prestigious in the capital.

Drinks can be paired with snacks like croquettes and Iberian ham. A very pleasant, chilled-out atmosphere that goes hand in hand with a varied music selection (jazz, funk, acid, etc.) that puts you in the mood for calm conversations as you spend an afternoon or evening in Madrid. The waiters are a real sight, elegant and impeccable in their tuxedos. One of the liveliest cocktail bars in the city.
