

Welcome to Madrid

Located close to Puerta del Sol, it was first opened as a theater in 1872. In 1981 it reopened as a night club, quickly becoming one of the hip places in the city with House music sessions and all the latest trends, such as Dance, Techno, Funky, Pop-Rock...

Joy Eslava occupies an area of more than 2,000 square meters distributed in four levels for the public and also has dressing rooms, rehearsal room and spaces dedicated to workshops. Apart from different daily sessions, it often celebrates different kinds of events and parties like concerts, presentations, movie premiers and record launchings.
