

Federal Café

Located in Plaza de las Comendadoras in the Barrio de Conde Duque, this is the perfect place for breakfast. It is very apparent that its coffees are prepared with a loving hand, as are its delectable handmade baked goods. The establishment has also seamlessly adopted the concept of brunch, making it possible to have breakfast/lunch at any time of the morning. The clientele tends to be a mixed crowd of modern, intellectual and beautiful people.

The place also functions as a restaurant (it serves salads, sandwiches, hamburgers, etc.) and, above all, as a place for local residents to gather. With its large windows, the establishment is distinguished by an abundance of natural light and a Nordic air. Dogs are welcome.
