The décor of this glamorous restaurant and cocktail bar in calle Fuencarral is by interior designer Tomás Alía. You can dine or have a snack as well as try one of the many cocktails.

Right in the heart of Madrid, between the lively Malasaña and Chueca neighbourhoods, it's a great spot to have a quick bite to eat before or during a night out, or on a shopping trip to the nearby shops. They have different kinds of set menus for groups.

The ground floor also can be reserved to be used for private or public events.
