

Welcome to Madrid

Japanese-Mediterranean cuisine with emphasis on the wonderful sushi. Among the starters you'll find tuna belly tataki with chopped chives and toasted garlic; red-prawn flambé served on nigiri sushi; contemporary makis, like the Ebi Ten Maki with roast eel, and king prawns in tempura with cooked miso sauce, a true discovery. There are also traditional dishes, not only sushi, but also hot Japanese food, including shabu shabu (scallops with miso sauce), tofu salad with chicken and crunchy chips and the tempuras: red prawn, udon pasta, as well as hot tuna tartare and more.
