

Picsa

This Argentine pizzeria in the neighbourhood of Chamberí, very close to the Azca business area, is the personal enterprise of members of the team from the renowned restaurant Sudestada. It seeks to offer the best of Italy's famous traditional recipe in different renovated versions.

With industrial style decor featuring white tiles, black marble floors, and columns from the grocery store that once occupied this space, Picsa offers over 15 varieties of pizza on its menu, including classics such as ham and scarmoza cheese, and aubergine and goat's cheese, alongside other more innovative offerings such as Peppers and rocket and Genoese "Canchera" (Italian speciality).
