

Teatros del Canal

Modern complex of 35,200 meters squared dedicated to performing arts. The building, National Architecture Award, is the work of the architect Juan Navarro Baldeweg and was inaugurated in 2009 with the latest technological developments in the Chamberí neighborhood.

Àlex Rigola and Natalia Álvarez Simó are the artistic directors of this modern space which boasts two fully equipped halls, the Red Hall and the Green Hall, a rehearsal hall (Black Hall) and the Canal Dance Centre. His program of events is dedicated to technical quality and artistic excellence. The hall celebrates from classical texts to modern pieces and even concerts, dance, flamenco, Spanish operetta, opera, circus and cabaret.
