

Welcome to Madrid

The Teatro Infanta Isabel, also known as Cinema Nacional or Petit Palais, is one of the oldest theaters in Madrid, more than one century old. It is located between Chueca and the area of Salesas.

It has a capacity for almost 620 people and its program revolves around international comedy and the most famous classical Spanish pieces.

Accessibility

Physical Accessibility

The theatre has a lift so it is accessible for wheelchairs. If the disabled person can get out of the wheelchair, he/she can sit in the stalls. Otherwise, he/she will sit in one of the balconies of the stalls. There are also adapted toilet facilities.
