

IFEMA - Feria de Madrid

Feria de Madrid is one of the five most important fair institutions in Europe, and the most important in Spain. During the year it organises more than 80 commercial fairs and contests specialized in different economic sectors, with approximately 42,000 participating companies. Many of them, such as ARCOmadrid, Mercedes Benz Fashion Week Madrid or FITUR, are events with great international relevance.

Approximately 4.5 million people visit the 200,000 metres squared of exhibition, 12 pavilions and 3 congress centres each year. The area of Campo de las Naciones, in the touristic area of Airport / Feria de Madrid, also has around one hundred meeting rooms, an auditorium and 14,000 parking spaces. The area avails of 8 accesses prepared for disabled people, distributed among the various entry areas (north, south, east and west).
