

Fernández Braso Gallery

December 2011 saw the inauguration of this gallery, which gives generational continuity to the work of the Fernández-Braso family in the world of art. The gallery follows the line of work of the gallery owner Miguel Fernández-Braso, who conceived the space “Rayuela” in 1971 and the “Juan Gris Gallery” in 1980.

In this new space, located at Calle Villanueva 30, he incorporates his sons, Miguel and Manuel, who demand the same standards of quality for work exhibited. Thus, there have been exhibitions of work by creators such as Rafael Canogar, Albert Rafols Casamada, Xavier Valls, Leopoldo Pomés and Pablo Palazuelo.
