

Joselito's

The prestigious Iberian cold meats and hams company Joselito, which has been around for over a century, has opened its first shop in Madrid with a tasting bar, combining the characteristics of a traditional cold meats shop with its specialist service and those of a tasting bar where you can try the brand's products.

Served by a master at slicing Iberian ham with a knife, there are rolls, hot and cold tapas, dishes to share... a wide range of possibilities involving Iberian produce. The creamy Iberian shoulder or ham croquettes or the LC Piquillo peppers grilled with bacon are highly recommended. Soon there will also be offerings from Joselitolab, created by Ferran Adria?.
