

Juvenalia

Juvenalia is a fair for family and school fun. A major recreational-educational event to enjoy with your family or classmates. Aimed at families with children aged 0 to 12 and schools, it aims to create a space for interaction with high quality educational shows and activities to foster the intellectual, emotional, social, and ethical development of children.

An educational leisure and recreation event for the whole family, aimed at children and teenagers. It includes educational contents that contribute to the affective, social and intellectual development of children.

Pavilions 12, 14 and 14.1 at Feria de Madrid will be hosting a wide array of fun activities. They include offerings such as theatre, music, videogames, traditional games, robotics, sports and magic.

As every year, this event, which showcases leisure and recreation options for children and teenagers, will be taking place during Spain's early December holiday. At the previous edition, over 84,000 visitors enjoyed all the activities taking place over the vast area made available at the different pavilions. The activities are adapted for different audiences and ages, and are distributed throughout over ten different spaces.
