

Suma Flamenca

The most innovative and classic artists, young newcomers and veterans showcase their art in a wide range of spaces. Singing, dancing, guitar playing, there is a place for everything and for all tastes at the Community of Madrid's Suma Flamenca festival.

In the fourteen years since it started, Suma Flamenca has become one of the most important flamenco festivals worldwide. Apart from featuring the most important flamenco artists, it has presented more than 200 young guitar players, singers and dancers that big flamenco figures have taken under their wing.

The focal point of the festival is Teatros del Canal and there will be other shows throughout the city like Centro Cultural Paco Rabal, Residencia de Estudiantes, Real Coliseo de Carlos III \(El Escorial\), Museo del Traje, Museo Lázaro Galdiano, Jardín Casa Museo Lope de Vega and the Centro Comarcal de Humanidades Cardenal Gonzaga Sierra Norte \(La Cabrera\).
