

Cortylandia

Cortylandia is one of the customary Christmas attractions in the heart of Madrid. It's set up every year by El Corte Inglés in front of its Preciados department store, on Calle del Maestro Victoria. This year, it'll include a little train, whose animated characters will delight children on board.

The snowmen and animals on the train will sing Christmas carols to the children visiting them at Cortylandia in 15-min shows running all day long.
