

Special Delivery Department (Santa's House)

Have you ever wondered what happens to your letters to Santa Claus or the Three Wise Men? Now you can find out at the Real Casa de Postas, where they've recreated the magical Special Delivery Department.

Here postmen are fantastic creatures, letters fly as moved by other-worldly powers and weird machines come to life. It's the Christmas spirit...

Children will enter a fantasy world divided into eight different settings, where letters are written and sprinkled with magic powders and essences, postmarked in a curious press, carried in a transparent carpet through a secret door into the Domed Room.
