

Casa Julio

This busy restaurant in Malasaña, famous for its croquettes, became hugely successful after the Irish group U2 visited there years ago and had a photo session inside.

Behind a traditional red front, typical of Madrid's old taverns, you will find a small restaurant with a bar and a few tables, where they serve homemade dishes. Croquettes are the house speciality and they offer different fillings: spinach, raisins and gorgonzola, mince meat, and classic ham.
