

Welcome to Madrid

The atelier of acclaimed Spanish veteran furrier Miguel Marinero can be found in the district of Chamberí.

Marinero worked as a creative manager for an haute-couture firm, designing bespoke and ready-made clothing and accessories, from 1974 until he left in 1982. One year later, he established his own brand. With more than 80 collections consisting of stylish pieces, he offers made-to-measure designs, alterations and restyling, as well as cleaning and storage of fur garments.
