

Welcome to Madrid

This bar, located in the La Latina quarter, known as Little Chueca, is a lively establishment that is very popular to enjoy some beers and tapas.

As is the case for the other establishments in the area, Sunday is perhaps the busiest day for this bar as it is typical to meet up for an aperitif. It is a typical starting point to go for beers and it offers tasty tapas and portions first thing in the afternoon and long drinks with dance music as evening falls.
