

Welcome to Madrid

In the neighbourhood of Almagro, very close to Paseo de la Castellana, we find this restaurant, owned by the Sushita Café chain, which takes you on a tour of Japanese culinary culture with international tinges in light, airy, colourful surroundings. The perfect place for those looking to eat healthily at a good price.

Located in the majestic Calle Miguel Angel, this restaurant offers a spacious dining experience, with a vertical garden, in a setting decorated with noble materials such as wood and marble, and with large picture windows. It is spread over two floors and has a large sushi bar and a take-away corner, where you can pick up food to enjoy at home.

The menu includes salads and soups, pasta and rice dishes, specialities such as red prawn tempura with sweet chilli, as well as wagyu and tuna tatakis, as well as a nod to Peruvian cuisine in the form of sea bass ceviche. All beautifully presented in the traditional Japanese style.
