

Welcome to Madrid

The Ponzano Street is a popular tapas area and Vagalume Galician restaurant is part of that culinary experience. It is a restaurant that relies on simple cuisine, quality produce, pleasant service and cozy atmosphere.

The restaurant has an air-conditioned bar where you can have a beer, a wine and some tapas. The dining-room is separated from the bar and allows you to enjoy food in a more relaxed atmosphere. The kitchen is open all day.

Its varied menu offers different kinds of meat, fish and sea-food, mostly prepared in Galician style, and an ample variety of white and red wines (there are more than 30 varieties to choose from). Its most famous dishes are the octopus and grilled meats.
