

Enrique Iglesias

One of the best known names in music, Enrique Iglesias is giving just one concert in Spain. The artist from Madrid has not ceased breaking records since he began his career more than two decades ago. With ten albums under his belt, he has sold over 170 million albums and has won the most prestigious awards in the music industry.

The artist, who has not stopped reeling out hit after hit, has become the singer who has had the most Number Ones on the Billboard Hot Latin Songs chart, 27 in total, and he has also topped other Billboard charts more than 100 times. In fact, Bailando stayed at Number One on the Hot Latin Songs chart for 41 weeks. On the other hand, Duele el corazón was his fourteenth Number One on the Billboard Dance Clubs Songs chart, which made him the male artist with the most Number Ones in this genre.

Enrique Iglesias is also one of the most popular performers on the streaming platforms. His last four singles, El baño, Nos fuimos lejos along with Descemer Bueno and El Micha, Move to Miami with Pitbull and his collaboration with the Norwegian DJ, Matoma in I Don't Dance (Without You), have once more topped the charts with visualisations and streaming that have reached astronomic figures.

Throughout his career, Enrique Iglesias has won numerous awards, whereby a Grammy in the Best Latin Artist category can be highlighted. He also has five Latin Grammys, four Billboard Awards, 43 Latin Billboard Awards, 10 World Music Awards, eight American Music Awards, five Latin American Music Awards, three MTV Europe Music Awards, one Ondas Award and one Silver Gaviota at the Viña del Mar Festival, among many other awards.
