

Welcome to Madrid

The gastronomic proposal of this vegan restaurant in the Retiro district has a marked international feel, combining Venezuelan, Italian and Oriental flavours among others, in an original and creative 100% plant-based menu. It serves breakfasts, lunches and dinners.

The chef and co-creator of this café, Carmelina "Mela" Spatafora, has spent many years developing vegan cuisine. The menu changes every day, taking flavours from all over the world. The menu includes salads, paninis, sharing dishes, burgers and desserts.

Cookaluzka also hosts various cultural activities in the area called "La Jungla", where several days a week you can enjoy musical performances, poetry recitals, and talks on various subjects.

Pets are also welcome here, and there is an outdoor terrace.
