

Welcome to Madrid

Inaugurated in December 1993, this mega store owned by the French group FNAC is a key point of reference and meeting point for cultural events and the consumption of leisure, culture and technology in the city. Considered the flagship FNAC store in Spain, here you can buy all kinds of audiovisual products, books, music, tickets for shows, movies, video games and new technologies, with staff on hand to provide expert advice.

In addition, FNAC was the first company in the retail distribution sector to offer cultural activities and support for artistic creation free of charge. The FNAC store in Calle Preciados is home to the Forum Fnac, which hosts all kinds of events, from concerts to book signings, as well as talks, exhibitions, workshops, film showings, and children's activities.

In addition to its day-to-day activities, the shop plays a prominent role in major cultural celebrations, such as World Book Day, Photoespaña, and World Music Day, among others.
