

Welcome to Madrid

Opened in 1977 by Félix Lázaro, this family-run tavern is an institution for residents of Madrid and tourists in the Rastro area. With a gastronomic offer in which grilled sardines are its speciality, today it is also known as the bar where one of the stars in the Movistar+ series, Gigantes, works.

Santurce is a bar that has always existed, where you can enjoy a beer that is pulled properly or a vermouth accompanied by a wide variety of tapas, among which the sardines, calamari and peppers stand out. Its fame stems from its quality, price and rapid service, as well as the friendliness of its bar staff.

The establishment, which is usually full, particularly on Sunday mornings, during the Rastro, has a long bar and some tables, and its décor has hardly changed since it was first opened.
