

Welcome to Madrid

Located in the heart of the Chueca district, this large bar-restaurant (occupying the entire ground floor of the building) stands out for its large windows that give it luminosity. You can have breakfast or a drink at dawn, all in a cosmopolitan place, a meeting point for locals, Madrid residents and tourists.

The eclectic and informal style of the place is divided into three unique and different environments.

Its menu is composed of proposals to share, mainly, with dishes that, besides a marked Spanish character, seek a renovation with cosmopolitan and international touches, creating more sophisticated and fun dishes. It also has a complete brunch.
